

Prof. Beata Bochorodycz, PhD
Director of the Institute of Oriental Studies
Head of the Department of Japanese Studies,
Poznań, Poland
bochorod@amu.edu.pl,
+48 609 150 011

To the Immigration Office,
Dear Sir/Madam

This letter confirms that Ding Nuozhou (14/08/1987, China, Passport nr EJ5588981) has been invited to attend the conference EAJIS2026 in Poznan, Poland from 27-30.08 2026.

The conference, hosted by Institute of Oriental Studies of Adam Mickiewicz University (AMU), is the world's largest and most international conference for Japanese Studies. It will take place at the Faculty of Law and Administration Collegium Iuridicum Novum building from August 27 to 30, 2026. The conference brings together more than 900 researchers in the field of Japanese Studies. There will also be a complementary series of artistic and cultural events, as well as various networking and capacity building events.

Ding Nuozhou has the following accepted roles in the conference:

- Author of Paper: The Politics of an Imperial Taboo: The Modern Reinvention of the Chrysanthemum Emblem in Meiji Japan

We look forward to welcoming the attendees of the 18th International Conference of the European Association for Japanese Studies (EAJS) in Poznan from August 27-30, 2026. For any queries, please directly contact Prof. Dr. Beata Bochorodycz at the address above.

Sincerely,

Prof. Beata Bochorodycz, PhD
Director of the Institute of Oriental Studies
Head of the Department of Japanese Studies